Today is Denim Day, a visible protest against the misconceptions that surround sexual violence and a show of solidarity with survivors.

Take a photo wearing denim and share it with us! Don't forget to use #DenimDay & #DCSAAM and tag @DCCESV to be reposted.

Wednesday, April 27th is
DENIM DAY 2022

Denim Day asks community members, elected officials, businesses, students, and the population at-large to make a social statement with their fashion statement by wearing jeans on this day.

Follow along with us this month as we raise awareness in honor of SAAM - Sexual Assault Awareness Month.

- ➡ the 450,000+ sexual assault survivors in the United States
- ➡ 1-in-6 women, 1-in-33 men, and 1-6 LGBTQ+ who will experience sexual assault in their lifetime
- ➡ the thousands of immigrant victims whose crimes have gone unreported
- ➡ the thousands immigrant survivors whose stories have been untold
- ➡ our 75+ clients, who are survivors of sexual assault, and whose resilience is inspiring

It's #TealTuesday! We're wearing teal to raise awareness and honor the resilience of survivors of sexual assault. Together, we can create cultures free from sexual violence. #DCSAAM #SAAM

SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS MONTH IS ABOUT:

- raising awareness
- learning how to end and prevent sexual violence
- supporting victim-survivors
